Germany

23rd of July, 2010.

Dear Jörg,

I'm writing to provide you with the required 90 days' notice of Termination of the most recent Vendor Agreement between WREL and QT Software GmbH, with the notice period starting as of the 23rd of July 2010, as per Section 5.2 of that Agreement. WREL has decided to make changes to the German market structure; these changes include the reduction of the number of sales partners selling WR products in Germany.

QT Software GmbH will be delisted from WR webpages and your Mathematica webstore referral code will be deactivated with immediate effect; in turn, we request that you immediately set about the removal of all WR and Mathematica-related materials from your website. Please take steps to pay any unsettled invoices as soon as possible; your credit facility with WREL will be withdrawn at the end of the 90-day period before final Termination of the Vendor Agreement. Please note that we will continue to accept orders made to orders@wolfram.co.uk at your current discount level until the expiry of the 90-day period - with the proviso that all open invoices are paid within the 90-day period.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your sales efforts in the German software market on our behalf, and wish you every success in the future.

Yours faithfully,
